Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Ohio.

LEGISLATIVE SINGLE DISTRICTS. SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1883, to amend Sections I to II, inclusive, of Article XI. of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, so they shall read as follows:

ARTICLE XI.

SEC. 1. The apportionment for members of the general assembly shall be made every ten years, prior to the first election for members of the general assembly shall be made every ten years, prior to the first election for members of the general assembly in each decennial period, in the manner herein provided.

SEC. 2. During the month of February prior to the first election for members of the general assembly after the passage of this act and in each decennial period the members of the general assembly after the passage of this act and in each decennial period the members of the sensite and house of representatives representing the two leading political parties, respectively, shall meet in separate bodies, and each of said bodies shall designate two electors who shall forwith be appointed by the governor; and said four electors so designated and appointed shall constitute a commission who shall ascertain and determine the ratio of representatives and senators, the number of representatives to which each county is entitled and the boundaries of each senatorial district. Should any vacancy occur in said commission the senators of the party making the original designation shall, within ten days thereafter, designate an elector to fill such vacancy, and he shall forthwith be appointed by the governor.

SEC. 3. The population of the state, as ascertained by the proceeding federal census, or in such other manner as the general assembly shall direct, shall be divided by the number "one hundred" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the house of representatives for the ten years succeeding such apportionment.

SEC. 4. Each county shall be entitled to at ratio of representation in the house of representatives for the ten years succeeding such apportionment.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my official seal, at Columbus, the 24th day of April, A. D. 1893. SAMUEL M. TAYLOR, Secretary of State, Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Ohio.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1993, to amend Section 2, Article XII., of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows: ARTICLE XII.

SEC. 2. Laws may be passed which shall tax by a uniform rule all moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies or otherwise; and all real and personal property according to the true value thereof in money. In addition thereto, laws may be passed taxing rights, privileges, franchises, and such other subject matters as the general assembly may direct; but burying-grounds, public school-houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions of purely public charity, public property used exclusively for any public purpose, and other property, may, by general laws, be exempted from taxation; and the value of all property so exempted shall, from time to time, be ascertained and published as may be directed by law.

SECTION 2. At such election, those electors desiring to vote for such amendment may have placed upon their ballots the words "Amendment taxing franchises and privileges—Yes," and those opposed to such amendment may have placed upon their ballots the words "Amendment taxing franchises and privileges—No."

SECTION 3. This amendment shall take ARTICLE XIL

No."
SECTION 3. This amendment shall effect on the first day of January, 1894.
